After reading the article/other texts in this module, how has your understanding of identity changed? Write a well-developed paragraph (150–200 words) reflecting on an idea or thought from the readings that shaped your thinking about identity. Your paragraph should include:

- A clear topic sentence that states your main idea.
- Supporting sentences that:
  - ✓ explain whether you agree or disagree with that idea and why,
  - ✓ connect the idea to your own experience or an example from society, and
  - ✓ use evidence or an example from the text to support your response wherever possible.
- A concluding sentence that brings your paragraph to a meaningful close.
